Days Inn Hotel Circle SeaWorld Becomes First Days Hotel in California

Parent Company Wyndham Worldwide announces new tier of Days Hotels

San Diego, CA – The Days Inn Hotel Circle SeaWorld has become the first Days Hotel in California. This new tier of the Days Inn properties is distinguished by providing facilities and amenities for business travelers including: swimming pool, fitness rooms, restaurant, meeting rooms and business center services.

In announcing the name change from Days Inn to Days Hotel, Richard Bartell, general partner of Bartell Hotels who owns this property said, "We have consistently provided our guests with the amenities required by today's savvy business traveler. We are pleased that Wyndham Worldwide has extended the Days Inn brand to include Days Hotels to reinforce the high level of service and amenities our guests have come to expect."

According to Dino Pallotta, Vice President Operations, Days Inns Worldwide, Inc., a subsidiary of Wyndham Worldwide, "We are delighted that the Days Inn Hotel Circle SeaWorld has converted to a Days Hotel – the first of its kind in California! Days Hotel is the upper tier of the Days Inn brand."

"The Days Inn Hotel Circle SeaWorld has always been an exceptional property with a reputation for outstanding service. Its location in the heart of San Diego's Mission Valley makes it an excellent choice for travelers and we are certain it will continue to make the Days Inn family proud as a Days Hotel," said Pallotta.

"As the first Days Hotel in California and one of only about 50 Days Hotels properties throughout the United States, we believe we have the best of all worlds – the strength of Wyndham Worldwide, our history with the Days Inn brand for the past 17 years, and now the leadership distinction of the new Days Hotel brand," said Barbara Atkins, General Manager of the property.

"Our hotel was Days Inn Property of the Year in 2006. We've also received the Chairman's Award of Excellence and have been the highest rated Days Inn in San Diego where we've consistently earned the Days Inn Five Star rating. This is a testament to our outstanding staff and their professionalism," added Atkins.

The Days Hotel – Hotel Circle SeaWorld offers 280 guestrooms including specially designed rooms for the business traveler and 49 efficiency rooms with kitchenettes. In room amenities include wireless high speed Internet access, microwaves, refrigerators, coffee makers, and hair dryers. The hotel is entirely non-smoking and complimentary transportation to the airport, SeaWorld and the Zoo is also available.
